1. COMMITMENT TO CHILD PROTECTION

We aim to create a safe and healthy environment for the young people with whom we work and we are always committed to ensuring their safety and welfare.

These guidelines are based on “Children First – National Guidelines for the Protection and Welfare of Children” and “Our Duty to Care – The Principles of Good Practice for the Protection of Children and Young People”.

2. STATEMENT OF POLICY

Polish Teachers Association (PTA) is fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of all the children and young people with whom we work. Our policy on child protection is in accordance with “Children First”.

The PTA is committed to promoting the rights of the child including the participation of children and young people in matters that affect them.

A set of guidelines have been introduced by the PTA and all staff and volunteers involved in any event with young participants have agreed to adhere to these guidelines.

The PTA’s guidelines are set out in this document.

Everybody who works with children has a duty of care to them and this is a responsibility, which must be taken seriously. These guidelines aim to provide information and promote good practice for those involved in working with children in the PTA so that staff will be aware of what to do in situations where the safety or welfare of a child may be at risk.

3. GOOD PRACTICE GUIDELINES

Safe practice is essential in our work, and we have put in place the following procedures to govern our work with children and young people:

- All staff and those assisting PTA in our work are aware of the good practice guidelines and are familiar with the overall child protection policy of the office
- Children and young people involved with our work are informed of our guidelines and procedures
- Parents of children involved with our work are also informed of our guidelines and procedures. The policy is constantly available in the school office
- PTA has appointed a ‘Child Protection Officer’ to deal with any complaints or issues arising which concern the safety or welfare of any child/young person who attends any events or meetings organised by PTA or with PTA staff. This person is appropriately trained and familiar with the procedures to be followed in the event of an allegation, concern, or disclosure of child abuse

- PTA has put in place an anti-bullying policy
- PTA has put in place a complaints procedure
- When organising tuition and additional events/meetings for children/young people, the following information/documentation is requested by PTA in relation to each child/young person attending the event/meeting:
  - a) A Parental Consent Form – particularly for events involving long distance travel or overnight stays (see sample in Appendix1)
  - b) Contact details for the family/guardians, including emergency contact numbers
  - c) All relevant medical information
  - d) Information relating to any special needs which the child or young person may have in terms of access, diet, language assistance, etc.
- An appropriate ratio of adults to young people is put in place for each meeting or event held by PTA.

The ratio may vary depending on the situation, the age of the participants and their disability or other special needs (Where activities involve being away from home overnight, appropriate gender-based supervision will be provided).

- All adults working with young people directly, including those providing overnight supervision, will have received Garda vetting
- Staff and facilitators show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of the children and young people
- Inappropriate behaviour/language by the children/young people will not go unchallenged
- A system is in place for recording any incidents or accidents while the child is in the care of PTA (see sample form at Appendix 5)
- A clear system of registration and departure of participants is in place at all events
- There are clear channels of communication and access to staff in the office if parents/guardians or children/young people wish to voice their concerns if there is something they are not happy about
- PTA will make every effort to ensure that during its events, the physical surroundings will be comfortable, fully accessible, and appropriate for the work being undertaken
- Employees and volunteers should not take one young person alone in a car on journeys. Where this is unavoidable, it should be with the full consent and knowledge of the parents/guardians and a senior member of the staff in PTA
- While we recognise that sometimes it is appropriate for staff to work on a one-to-one basis with a child or young person, staff/volunteers should not spend excessive amounts of time alone with an individual child/young person. Where an adult needs to meet with a child/young person alone, the door should be left open and another adult informed of the meeting

- There should be no unnecessary physical contact between an adult and a young person although there are times when for example, placing a hand on a distressed child/young person's shoulder to comfort him/her would be appropriate. Physical contact should only be in response to the needs of the child and should be appropriate to the age and the level of development of the child
- PTA respects and promotes the principles of equality and diversity and works with all children in a culturally sensitive way within the context of the Irish constitution and law and the UN Convention on the Rights of the child

4. RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING

Putting in place good procedures in recruitment and training practice is a central element in ensuring the safety and welfare of all adults and young people involved in the organisation.

a. Recruitment

In engaging staff or volunteers for PTA, the following procedures will be followed:

- All adults working with young people directly, including those providing overnight supervision, will have received Garda vetting
- Staff will be sent via e-mail a copy of the PTA Child Protection Policy and code of behaviour and will be asked to sign a document certifying that they have read it and agree to abide by its contents and that there is no reason why they would be considered unsuitable for working with children/young people (see App 3)

A clear job description is developed outlining the responsibilities of the job and the reporting procedure.

- The applicant must supply information of previous, recent experience, particularly all experience relating to working with children/young people
- Garda vetting procedure will be sought by PTA Staff and volunteers from another agency/organisation
- When working with staff/volunteers from another agency/organisation in facilitating an event involving children/young people, such staff/volunteers will be given then PTA Child Protection policy and code of behaviour and will be asked to sign a document certifying that they have read it and agree to abide by its contents and that there is no reason why they would be considered unsuitable for working with children/young people (see Appendix 3)

- For staff/volunteers working directly with children/young people, Garda vetting will be sought by PTA
- If the volunteer/staff has already obtained Garda vetting through their own organisation, in the previous 18 months, a form should be completed by their organisation confirming this fact and a copy of the Garda vetting should be forwarded to PTA (see Appendix 4)

b. Training

All staff of PTA will be expected to participate in relevant training from time to time. Those working directly with children/young people must have received some training on the issue of child protection.

Where young people, under 18 years, are assisting in the work of PTA, they will receive appropriate information on the PTA Child Protection Policy and national child protection policy at a level suitable to their age and experience. These young people will always work in partnership with or under the supervision of an adult.

Induction training for any new staff will include training on the PTA child protection policy.

5. KEEPING PARENTS AND GUARDIANS INFORMED

The Office of PTA will keep parents and guardians informed of all aspects of the programme that their child is involved in. It is our policy to share information relating to the programme of activities, trips away, transport to and from events, etc. with the parents/guardians. It is our practice to inform parents/guardians first in the event of a child disclosing an incident of abuse unless this could put the child in danger.

6. SCHOOL TRIPS AND OTHER ACTIVITIES INVOLVING OVERNIGHT STAYS AWAY FROM HOME

Where the activities involve staying away from home overnight several additional concerns need to be considered. In all cases of residential work with young people, PTA follows the guidelines below.

General guidelines

- Adequate and safe transport arrangements will be made
- There will be adequate insurance cover for the activities being undertaken

- Parent/guardian consent will be obtained for each participant, prior to the trip, including information on each participant about the following:
  - a) Contact details of parent/guardian and another person named by the parent/guardian in the event of the parent/guardian not being available in an emergency
  - b) All relevant medical information for the participant and consent for medical intervention, if necessary
  - c) Any special needs which the participant may have, including diet, medical needs, support needs, etc
- All relevant information including contact details, allergies, medicines, dietary needs etc. for the child or young person will be kept with a leader/staff member on the trip.
- Parents/guardians will be fully informed of the programme or timetable for the event and will receive a copy of the programme
- Parents will be given full contact details of the centre/hotel/accommodation and of the staff member in charge of the event
- PTA will ensure that the physical surroundings are safe, comfortable, accessible, and appropriate for the work being undertaken
- There will be an appropriate ratio of adults to young people at the event – this may vary depending on the age and ability of the group involved
- There will be appropriate gender-based supervision for the event
- Accommodation will be provided in single sex rooms, and dormitories will not be shared with nongroup members
- PTA have a system in place for recording any accidents or incidents while in the care of PTA
- One staff person will be designated as the 'key contact person' for the event and parents/guardians and participants will be given contact details of this person. All complaints, concerns, etc should be directed to this person (except for complaints in relation to the safety and welfare of the children/young people).
- Parents/guardians will also be given the contact details of the PTA Child Protection Officer
- Complaints in relation to the safety and welfare of the children/young people should be made to the Child Protection Officer OF PTA

Code of behaviour for events

- All staff/leaders will show respect and understanding for the children/young people involved
- Inappropriate behaviour/language will not go unchallenged
- A list of 'ground rules' will be drawn up for each event, with the participation of the children/young people and these will be distributed to all participants and will be signed up to, prior to the event. The ground rules will be displayed in the meeting rooms during the event

- The privacy of the participants will be always respected and particularly in dormitories, changing rooms, showers, and toilets
- Participants should be encouraged to report to a staff member any cases of bullying and the staff member in charge must be made aware of this
- Staff/leaders should avoid showing favouritism towards any one participant and should ensure that the relationship is constructive and aims to build the independence and autonomy of the participants.

7. WORKING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH OTHER AGENCIES

In many instances PTA will work collaboratively with other agencies in organising events with children/young people involved. There are many different forms that this work may take. However, where the event is being run in the name of PTA, our Child Protection guidelines will apply.

8. DEALING WITH CHALLENGING OR DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOUR

Staff who deal directly with children and young people will be given guidance and support in dealing with difficult behaviour. PTA ensures that the safety and welfare of the children and young people is a priority, and that staff will deal sensitively and professionally with any difficult issues that may arise. Where instances of challenging or disruptive behaviour occur with children/young people, a record will be kept of this where the instance requires the intervention of a worker or volunteer or where the safety and well-being of others are at risk.

In a case of such behaviour, two workers/volunteers should be present in dealing with the situation. Staff members who are present at the time, should complete the incident/accident report form (see Appendix 5).

The report of the incident should include:

- The programme or activity which was happening at the time
- Date of Incident
- A record of what happened
- Details of who was involved
- Details of where and when it happened
- A record of any significant comments
- A record of any injury to person or property
- Details of how the situation was resolved or left

9. BULLYING

Bullying behaviour can be defined as repeated aggression be it verbal, psychological, or physical which is conducted by an individual or group against others.

Examples of bullying include:

- Teasing
- Taunting
- Threatening
- Hitting
- Extortion
- Exclusion.

PTA will not tolerate any bullying behaviour by children/young people or adults and will deal with any incidents immediately in accordance with the PTA anti-bullying policy when working with children and young people (Appendix 9).

10. DEALING WITH A DISCLOSURE OF ABUSE

PTA values and encourages the full participation of children and young people in many aspects of our work, and we strive to ensure that the experience of the child/young person in our work is a happy and productive one. In the event of a child/young person disclosing an incident of abuse it is essential that this is dealt with sensitively and professionally by the staff member/volunteer involved. The following are guidelines to support the worker/volunteer in this:

- React calmly
- Listen carefully, attentively and take the young person seriously
- Reassure the young person that they have taken the right action in talking to you
- Do not promise to keep anything secret
- Ask questions for clarification only
- Do not ask leading questions
- Check back with the child/young person that what you have heard is correct and understood
- Do not express any opinions about the alleged abuser
- Record the conversation as soon as possible, in as much detail as possible, sign and date the record
- Ensure that the child/young person understands the procedures which will follow
- Pass the information to the Child Protection Officer, do not attempt to deal with the problem alone
- Treat the information confidentially

11. ROLE OF THE CHILD PROTECTION OFFICER

The Child Protection Officer in PTA has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that the child protection and welfare policy of PTA is promoted and implemented. A Deputy Child Protection Officer in PTA will take over the responsibilities of the Child Protection Officer if they are unavailable for a significant amount of time.

The role of the Child Protection Officer involves the following duties:

- To be familiar with “Children First”, National Guidelines for the Protection and Welfare of Children and “Our Duty to Care”, the principles of good practice for the protection of children & young people and to have responsibility for the implementation and monitoring of the child protection and welfare policy of PTA
- To receive reports of alleged/suspected or actual child abuse and act on these in accordance with the guidelines
- To ensure that training is provided for all new and existing staff in PTA on the child protection policy
- To build a working relationship with the Health Service Executive (HSE), An Garda Síochána and other agencies, as appropriate
- To ensure that supports are put in place for the young person, employees or volunteers in cases of allegations being made
- To keep up to date and undertake relevant training on child protection policy and practice, to ensure the relevance and appropriateness of the PTA’s policy and procedures in this area
- To review the PTA policy and procedures on child protection on an annual basis and amend as appropriate
- To ensure that systems are in place for recording and retaining all relevant documentation in relation to child protection issues.

12. REPORTING PROCEDURE IN RESPECT OF CHILD ABUSE

PTA has put in place a standard reporting procedure for dealing with disclosures, concerns, or allegations of child abuse.

Definition and Recognising Child Abuse

Child abuse can be categorised into four different types: neglect, emotional abuse, physical abuse, and sexual abuse. A child may be subjected to one or more forms of abuse at any given time. Definitions of the four types of abuse, how to recognise abuse and an explanation of “reasonable grounds for concern” are included in Appendix 7, which is based on “Children First – National Guidelines for the Protection and Welfare of Children”.

Responsibility to Report Child Abuse

Everyone must be alert to the possibility that children with whom they are in contact may be experiencing abuse or have been abused in the past. This is an important responsibility for staff and volunteers when working with children and young people.

The guiding principles regarding reporting children abuse are summarised as follows:

- The safety and well-being of the child or young person must take priority
- Reports should be made without delay to the HSE
- While the basis for concern must be established as comprehensively as possible, children or parents should not be interviewed in detail about the suspected abuse.
- The reporting procedure for dealing with disclosures, concerns or allegations of child abuse is outlined in the following steps:
- The employee or volunteer who has received a disclosure of child abuse or who has concerns of abuse, should bring it to the attention of the Child Protection Officer immediately
- The Child Protection Officer will assess and review the information that has been provided. The CPO may contact the HSE for informal advice relating to the allegation, concern, or disclosure
- After consultation with the HSE officials, the Child Protection Officer will then take one of two options:
  - a) Report the allegation, concern, or disclosure to the HSE or
  - b) Not make a formal report to HSE but keep a record of the concerns on file. The reasons for not reporting the allegation, concern or disclosure will be clearly recorded. The employee/volunteer who made the initial report will be informed if a formal report is not being made to the HSE and it is open to him/her to make a formal report themselves, directly to the relevant authority if they feel this is necessary.

- Where a formal report is made the HSE will then liaise with An Garda Síochána. It is likely that the HSE will want to speak to the person who first made the report to clarify facts and the circumstances of the report.

In an emergency a report should be made directly to An Garda Síochána.

In making a report on suspected or actual child abuse, the individual must ensure that the priority is always for the safety and welfare of the young person and that no young person is ever left in an un-safe situation.

Parents/guardians of the child will be informed of the allegation, concern or disclosure unless doing so is likely to endanger the child.

The more information which is gathered and put together on the Standard Reporting Form which has been adopted by PTA (see Appendix 2) the easier it will be to assess an allegation, concern, or disclosure of abuse.

Reports, which are made anonymously, will be followed up but this may take longer and will make it more difficult for the professionals involved to assess the situation. If a person is unsure about the case, it may be useful to talk over the issue with the Child Protection Officer or with a HSE worker before making an official report.

Confidentiality

In matters of child abuse, an employee/volunteer should never promise to keep secret, any information which is divulged. It should be explained to the young person that this information cannot be kept secret but only those who need to know, will be told.

It is essential in reporting any case of alleged/suspected abuse that the principle of confidentiality applies.

The information should only be shared on a 'need to know' basis and the number of people that need to be informed should be kept to a minimum.

The Protections for Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act, 1998

This Act provides immunity from civil liability to persons who report child abuse 'reasonably and in good faith' to the Child Protection Officer, the HSE or An Garda Síochána (see Appendix 8 for further details).

13. ACTION TO BE TAKEN WHEN AN ALLEGATION IS MADE AGAINST A STAFF MEMBER

Where an allegation of abuse is made against an employee of PTA, there are two procedures that PTA will put in place:

- The reporting procedure in respect of the child
- The procedure for dealing with the employee.

In the case of the allegation being against an employee of PTA, the same person will not deal with both the young person and the alleged abuser. Employment/contractual issues will be dealt with separately. The Child Protection Officer will follow the normal reporting procedure in PTA. It will be the responsibility of the School Principal of PTA to deal with a staff member against whom an allegation has been made.

If there is an allegation or suspicion in relation to the School Principal or any member of the Board of the Association, the Secretary Officer in the Department of Health and Children will deal with all aspects relating to both.

If there is an allegation or suspicion in relation to the Child Protection Officer, the School Principal will deal with all aspects of the case, including the reporting procedure.

If an allegation is made against an employee of PTA, the following steps will be taken:

- The School Principal of PTA will deal with all aspects of the case relating to the employee
- The allegation will be assessed by the Child Protection Officer to establish if there are reasonable grounds for concern and whether a formal report will be made to the statutory authorities, at this point
- The CPO may wish to contact the HSE for advice on the issue
- The safety of the child is the first priority of PTA, and all necessary measures will be taken to ensure that the child is safe. The measures taken will be proportionate to the level of risk
- PTA will ensure that no other children/young people are at risk during this period and will inform other relevant agencies or parents/carers as appropriate
- The measures which can be taken to ensure the safety of children and young people can include the following: suspension of duties of the person accused, re-assignment of duties where the accused will not have contact with children/young people, working under increased supervision during the period of the investigation or other measures as deemed appropriate
- If a formal report is being made the employer will notify the employee that an allegation has been made and what the nature of the allegation is.

- The employee has a right to respond to this and this response should be documented and retained
- PTA will ensure that the principle of 'natural justice' will apply whereby a person is considered innocent until proven otherwise
- PTA will work in co-operation with An Garda Síochána and the HSE and any decisions on action to be taken in regard to the employee will be taken in consultation with these agencies
- The person against whom the allegation is made will need support during this period and PTA will provide advice on how to access the relevant support services
- In the case of an allegation being made against a volunteer within PTA the Child Protection Officer will deal with the issue as outlined in the steps above

14. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE IN RELATION TO CHILD SAFETY AND PROTECTION

PTA is committed to ensuring the safety and welfare of all children/young people with whom we work.

PTA has put in place a complaints procedure (Appendix 10) to cover any situations which may arise, when children/young people or their parents/guardians are not happy with the way the children/young people were treated by PTA. Complaints regarding the safety and welfare of children/young people should be directed to the Child Protection Officer in PTA. Other complaints should be directed to the person with whom the child/young person dealt with or the head of the relevant section in PTA.

15. RECORD KEEPING

The Child Protection Officer and the Deputy Child Protection Officer are responsible for keeping the following records related to Child Protection in a locked filing cabinet. The Child Protection Officer, the Deputy Child Protection Officer and the School Principal of PTA are the only officers who have access to these records:

- Any complaints about the safety and welfare of children/young people while working with PTA
- Any disclosures, concerns, or allegations of child abuse
- The follow up to any complaints, disclosure, concerns, or allegations, including informal advice from the HSE, reports to the HSE and informing parents/guardians
- Any bullying complaints related to PTA work with children/young people and the follow up action

- Signed acceptance forms of the PTA Child Protection Policy by staff members, people on short term contracts, staff/volunteers from other agencies working on PTA projects.

The Communications team are responsible for keeping the following records in a locked filing cabinet. The Communications team members, the Child Protection Officer, the Deputy Child Protection Officer, and the School Principal of PTA are the only officers who have access to these records:

- All Garda Vetting Forms
- All Parental/Guardian Consent Forms

Note:

A computer record of Garda Vetting is also kept. This will be password protected and access will be restricted to the communications team, the Child Protection Officer, the Deputy Child Protection Officer, and the School Principal of PTA.

PTA holds records in accordance with the National Archives Act 1986. This means that no records can be destroyed without the permission of the National Archives. PTA will discuss with the National Archives the appropriate length of time to hold the above records and this policy will be updated accordingly once agreement has been reached.

Recognising Child Abuse

Definition and Possible Physical and Behavioural Indicators of Child Abuse

Neglect

Neglect can be defined in terms of an omission, where the child suffers significant harm or impairment of development by being deprived of food, clothing, warmth, hygiene, intellectual stimulation, supervision and safety, attachment to and affection from adults, medical care. Neglect generally becomes apparent in different ways over a period rather than at one specific point.

Possible indicators of this type of abuse are:

- Frequent minor or serious injuries
- Untreated illness
- Hunger, lack of nutrition
- Tiredness
- Inadequate and inappropriate clothing
- Lack of supervision
- Low self esteem
- Lack of peer relationships

Emotional

Emotional abuse is normally to be found in the relationship between a caregiver and a child rather than in a specific event or pattern of events. It occurs when a child's need for affection, approval, consistency, and security are not met. Unless other forms of abuse are present, it is rarely manifested in terms of physical signs or symptoms.

Possible indicators of this type of abuse are:

- Unreasonable mood and/or behavioural changes
- Aggression, withdrawal or an 'I don't care attitude'
- Lack of attachment
- Low self esteem
- Attention seeking
- Depression or suicide attempts
- Persistent nightmares, disturbed sleep, bedwetting, reluctance to go to bed
- A fear of adults or individuals e.g., family member, baby-sitter, or indeed excessive clinginess to parents/carers
- Panic attacks

Physical

Physical abuse is any form of non-accidental injury or injury which results from wilful or neglectful failure to protect a child.

Possible indicators of this type of abuse are:

- Frequent bruising, fractures, cuts, burns and other injuries
- Torn clothing
- Bite marks burns or welts
- Bruises in places difficult to mark e.g., behind ears, groin
- Undue or unnecessary fear
- Aggressiveness or withdrawn
- Absconding frequently from home

Sexual

Sexual abuse occurs when a child is used by another person for his or her gratification or sexual arousal or for that of others. Possible indicators of this type of abuse are:

- Over affectionate or inappropriate sexual behaviour
- Age-inappropriate sexual knowledge given the child's age, which is often demonstrated in language, play or drawings
- Fondling or exposure of genital areas
- Hints about sexual activity
- Unusual reluctance to join in normal activities which involve undressing, e.g., games/swimming

Indicators of Abuse are Not Facts

It is important to stress that no one indicator should be seen as conclusive of abuse; it may indeed indicate conditions other than child abuse. A cluster or pattern of signs is likely to be more indicative of abuse. Signs must also be considered in the child's social and family context as child abuse is not restricted to any socio-economic group, gender, or culture. It is important to always be open to alternative explanations for possible physical or behavioural signs of abuse.

Reasonable Grounds for Concern

The statutory authorities should always be informed when a person has reasonable grounds for concern that a child may have been abused, or is being abused, or is at risk of abuse. A suspicion that is not supported by any objective indicator of abuse or neglect would not constitute reasonable grounds of for concern.

The following examples would constitute reasonable grounds for concern:

- I. specific indication from the child that s/he was abused
- II. an account by the person who saw the child being abused

- III. evidence such as injury or behaviour which is consistent with abuse and unlikely to be caused in any other way
- IV. an injury or behaviour, which is consistent both with abuse and with an innocent explanation but where there are corroborative indicators supporting the concern that it may be a case of abuse. An example of this would be a pattern of injuries, an implausible explanation, other indications of abuse, dysfunctional behaviour
- V. consistent indication, over a period, that a child is suffering from emotional or physical neglect
- VI. A suspicion, not supported by any objective indication of abuse or neglect, does not constitute a reasonable suspicion or reasonable grounds for concern (Children First 1999, 4.3.2 and 4.3.3)

Protection for Persons Reporting Child Abuse

The Protection for Persons Reporting Child Abuse Act, 1998 provides immunity from civil liability to persons who report child abuse “reasonably and in good faith” to the HSE or An Garda Síochána. This means that even if a reported suspicion of child abuse proves unfounded a plaintiff who took an action would have to prove that the reporter had not acted reasonably and in good faith in making the report.

This protection applies to organisations and to individuals. It is considered therefore that organisations should assume full responsibility for reporting suspected child abuse to the appropriate authorities. Reports to the HSE and to the Gardaí should be made by the Child Protection Officer, as per the organisation’s policy and guidelines.

Section 3 (1) of the Act states:

“3. (1) A person who apart from this section, would be so liable shall not be liable in damages in respect of the communication, whether in writing or otherwise, by him or her to an appropriate person of his or her opinion that-

- (a) a child has been or is being assaulted, ill-treated, neglected, or sexually abused, or
- (b) a child’s health development or welfare has been or is being avoidably impaired or neglected, unless it is proven that he or she has not acted reasonably and in good faith in forming that opinion and communicating it to the appropriate person”.

- For less serious incidents involving children/young people, allowing the child/young person to continue to participate in the event/activity once they have apologised to the victim and stated that they would not engage in any further bullying behaviour. Their behaviour would then be closely monitored
- Providing support to the child/young person to get them to understand that their behaviour is not acceptable and monitoring their behaviour
- For serious incidents involving a member of PTA, transferring the person out of PTA or transferring them to an area within PTA where they will not have any dealings with children/young people.
